

Natural Stone Heating

Dynatherm Marble Heating will be an eye catcher in any room. The quality of these radiators speaks for itself - an excellent surface finish and clean-cut edges are convincing features.

All marble radiators are fitted with a 3 cm thick natural stone slab.

Low fuel consumption and the ability to store heat for a long time make it an ideal alternative to expensive night storage heaters.

Dynatherm Marble Heating is available in Volakas White – marble renowned for its temperature stability.
